

AGAINST TAMMANY.

A Leading Member of the Organization Out Against Cleveland.

THE CHICAGO PLATFORM BOLTED.

It Was Too Much For Attorney Otto Irving Wise—Even the Police Bill Bugaboo Did Not Prevent Democratic Committeeman Wise From Repudiating Free Trade and Resolving to Support Harrison and Reid.

A New York Dispatch.

The fact that this is a campaign of education receives new confirmation every day. Many Democrats who have been honest in their beliefs, and who have studied the conditions of the country thoughtfully and sensibly are coming into the Republican party. The position that the Democratic party has taken on the tariff and currency has alienated many men who had an honest faith in Democracy.

One of the most important of these accessions to the Republican ranks is Otto Irving Wise, one of the best known commercial lawyers in New York. For a number of years he has been a member of the Tammany Hall general committee of the Twenty-first district, but he does not take politics lightly. He thinks the duty of every good citizen is to cast his vote for the party that does the best for the country. He has gone through Mr. Cleveland with a lighted candle, and has left him and his party. He now has certain honest things to say of them both.

"A lawyer," he said this morning, "can have very little motive in his advocacy of the claims of any party. If he is honest with himself he will study the professions of each party as made plain in the platforms, and will take into account the faithfulness with which the parties live up to their platforms. I studied with a great deal of care the Chicago platform.

"Mr. Cleveland's letter of acceptance is inconsistent with the platform. Mr. Hill is inconsistent with both. If I want to vote according to conviction, I can find no place in the Democratic party. The platform advocates wildcat currency; both Cleveland and Hill ignore that. Cleveland, in his tariff views, as expressed in his letter, is as far away from the Democratic platform as President Harrison is, and if you ask him why 'he is a Democrat,' he howls, 'No force bill.'

"I learned the foolishness of Democratic pretensions on all these contradictory points in a trip I have just made in Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and Pennsylvania. Everywhere I found sound satisfaction with the prosperity of the country. The wage workers are better off than they have ever been before, and, without exception, they attribute this to Republican principles, as crystallizing in the McKinley bill.

"In Maryland and Virginia the 'force bill' bugaboo does not frighten anyone. The honest Democrats would like to see a measure passed that would insure a pure and honest count, and take the polls out of the hands of the buldozing class of low whites who now defeat every measure of reform. No Democratic speaker in Maryland, I was told by the chairman of the Democratic committee in Wilmington, dares to try and whip up Democratic enthusiasm by attacking the federal election law known as the Lodge bill. The Democratic party seems to have a job lot of ready-made platforms which it serves out to suit the tastes of each section, but their tariff straddle and the boudle scheme of establishing state banks with wildcat currency will defeat the ticket."

Mr. Wise added that the report of Democratic Commissioner Peck proved that protection and Republicanism were for the best interests of the people. "Republicanism," he said, epigrammatically, "is synonymous with the prosperity of the country. An honest man who has studied the history of both parties cannot vote the Democratic ticket." Here is Mr. Wise's letter to Tammany:

New York, Oct. 5, 1897.

Hon. James J. Martin, Chairman Tammany Hall General Committee, Twenty-first Assembly District.

Dear Sir:—I beg herewith to withdraw my name as a member of the General Committee of Tammany Hall for the Twenty-first Assembly District. I feel that I cannot conscientiously remain a member of your committee because the principles embodied in the Democratic platform adopted at Chicago last June, and since expounded by the leaders of the party, are contrary to my belief as to what would best add to the welfare of the country. A careful study of the Republican platform, upon which Mr. Harrison stands for re-election, convinces me that I cannot serve the interests of the community at large any better than by voting for the candidates of the Republican party.

OTTO IRVING WISE.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

News Notes and Personalities from Our Near Neighbor.

Martin's Ferry Republicans are greatly interested in the McKinley demonstration at Wheeling to-morrow. They are glad that the Terminal railway will run a special train at a half fare rate for the round trip, and will go by this way. The train will leave the Terminal depot at 7:37, Wheeling time, and return, leaving Wheeling at 11 o'clock, same time. The marching clubs will go on the special and will arrive in Wheeling in plenty of time to participate in the big parade. The Terminal is the best way to go and return. The fare for both ways will be only fifteen cents. Many Republicans are praying for good weather on Tuesday.

M. J. Morton, who is night manager in the Neville glass works, at Blairsville, Pa., came down on Saturday to spend Sunday. He says the works are now doing well, with good prospects. They had considerable bad luck at the start.

Theo. Keller and J. Ed. Clark were nominated for justices of the peace by the Republicans on Saturday. The vote was as follows: Theo. Keller, 291; J. Ed. Clark, 158; William Ellifrits, 145; Mr. Smith, 151.

Judge Driggs on Saturday rendered his decision in the electric light injunction case, in which he dissolved the injunction heretofore allowed. The case will be carried to the circuit court.

Rev. H. N. Campbell and William Clark have returned from Delaware, O., where they attended the Presbyterian synod. They report a successful meeting and a pleasant time.

Miss Wallace, of Minneapolis, lost a find gold watch on Saturday evening while on her way to Wheeling. On the end of the chain was a King's Daughters cross and a gold ring.

It is a common thing to hear Martin's Ferry Republicans say that West Virginia will go Republican next month. Much interest is taken in the night in West Virginia.

The White lots on Third street, appraised at $800 and $1,000, were sold on Saturday by Administrator F. R. Sedgwick for $350 and $1,250 respectively.

Martin's Ferry will have fully one hundred men in the McKinley parade to-morrow night, and will show up in great shape.

The Republican Marching club will meet to-night at 7 o'clock to drill. Every member should attend.

Next Saturday the O. U. A. M. of Dillonvale will present the public schools with a flag.

Laurens Hamilton is entertaining his father, Rev. E. A. Hamilton, of Springfield, Mo.

Mrs. Capt. H. W. Smith is visiting Mrs. A. P. Sheriff, at Cadiz.

Jess Jones is home from Pittsburgh over Sunday.

BELLAIRE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

There was no conference between the city committee and the Baltimore & Ohio officials last Saturday, because the railroad officials declined to go farther in arranging for the Belmont street crossing and at the same time contest the same question in the courts. They want one or the other stopped until the result of at least one of the efforts is known, and frankly stated that they regarded it as folly to pursue both courses at one and the same time. The case has been on file in the supreme court for two years or more, and so far as the city knows there is nothing new in the case, and they had hoped the conference would settle the question in dispute, so that the case in court would be withdrawn.

The Republican club here will be clothed in high white hats and carry bamboo canes. These have been ordered and were expected Saturday. The club now has over a hundred members and is beginning to manifest an interest in the campaign that is putting life into it. So far politics have been very quiet, but the boys now want to hear General Gibson or ex-Governor Foraker, and if either comes here they will give him a welcome of the old-time kind.

Bellaire Republicans can go to Wheeling to-morrow over the C., L. & W. and Terminal road for twenty cents for the round trip, a very low rate. A special train with plenty of coaches will leave the depot at 7 o'clock, Wheeling time, and arrive at Wheeling at 7:50, and return leaving Wheeling at 11 o'clock. This is an excellent way to go, and a large crowd will take advantage of the special train and low rates. The Martin's Ferry and Glenn's Run clubs will go on this train.

Rev. J. R. Mills, the presiding elder of this district, whose home is at Barnesville, was married at the residence of Gen. B. K. Cowen in this city, twenty-five years ago to-day, and the anniversary will be celebrated by the couple at their Barnesville home. Several persons from this city will join the company and assist in making it pleasant for Mr. and Mrs. Mills.

William Shields, father of Rev. W. and Professor D. W. Shields, and one of the best citizens of this township, was found dead in his bed last Saturday morning. He had not been ill and retired in his usual health, but died without a struggle during the night. He was 82 years of age.

The Columbian day committee have arranged for the grandest fire works here on Friday night ever seen in this city. All of the arrangements are completed and after the parade and literary exercises the fireworks display will be given at the public square.

The reading room on Gravel Hill was formally opened last Saturday evening and it was crowded during the entire evening. John A. Gallaher, esq., and others made short talks and the young men were left to enjoy themselves as they desired.

The Ohio Valley railroad from here to Powhatan is a splendid piece of road, but trains are not running regularly over it yet as was expected they would be, because of the delay of getting up the bridge right at Powhatan.

Several of the Democratic candidates for county offices have worked Bellaire pretty thoroughly, but there is less farming done among the voters with the kangaroo system of voting than formerly.

The first story of the north end of the new brick stamping factory is up and the work is being pushed along as rapidly as possible. The frame for the roof on Rodefer Bros.' new glass factory is about half up.

Mrs. S. M. Davis, of Newton, Kansas, talked on Home Missionary work at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning, after which a collection for home missions was taken up.

The first of the series of lectures to be given here this winter will be given on Thursday evening of this week. The course is half lectures and half musical entertainments.

The Bellaire steel plant made the largest run last week it ever made, both turns yielding a larger tonnage of finished steel than ever before.

George Lippincott, one of the best young hotel men in the State, now located at Fostoria, spent yesterday with Bellaire friends.

Mad. Aldridge, the Republican candidate for auditor, has been mingling with the people here with good effect.

Abel Stahl has been elected one of the directors of the Ohio State Liquor Dealers' Association.

Will Parks and his sister, Miss Mary, leave to-day to spend a couple of weeks in Chicago.

Editor W. C. Warnock, of the Democrat, is confined to his home, quite sick.

It Isn't Free Trade.

Tariff Reform does not necessarily mean free trade. It means an improvement of the weak points of the present system. That's something that ought to be popular with everybody. The new "Tariff Reform" cakes baked by the Wheeling Bakery are popular with everybody already. One reason is they are simply delightful cakes. Another is they represent a popular sentiment; popular with both Republicans and Democrats. You can get "Tariff Reform" cakes from your grocer. If he hasn't them in stock tell him to get them for you.
